

CV : Johanne Bratbo

Key skills and experience

- 25 years' experience working in organisations and structuring units delivering professional psychological and social services
- 20 years' experience in European and global collaborations through psychological associations
- Project management – designing programmes, leadership, team development, partnership working, fundraising, budget management, designing and implementing monitoring and evaluation systems, staff and user involvement

Qualifications

Master of Science, authorised psychologist

Postgraduate in clinical psychology

Completed numerous courses on project management and professional development and participated in and contributed to several conferences at international and national level

Recent publication

Chapter in Part III "Fighting stigma and discrimination – current practice and knowledge. Country perspectives: Denmark" in "The Stigma of Mental Illness – End of the Story? By Norman Sartorius and Wolfgang Gaebel – in press

Co-editor on a Danish publication on working with life stories as a method in psychosocial rehabilitation for people with mental illness: "Nøglen til livet" 2014. Ed. Jonas Gustafsson

Current work

2011- Project Manager of ONE OF US – the national campaign for antistigma in Denmark

Previous work

2002-2011 Head of the Knowledge Center for Psychosocial Rehabilitation

2003-2007 Board member of The Executive Council in EFPA (European Federation of Psychologists' Association) and member of task forces

1996-2002 President of The Danish Psychologists' Association and member of The Presidents' Council in EFPA (European Federation of Psychologists' Association)

1998-2002 Vice president in The Danish Confederation of Professional Associations (umbrella organization for academics' organizations)

1991-1996 Chief psychologist in a public unit delivering psychological and special pedagogical services for children, families and staff in the municipality Herlev (capital region)

CV : Johanne Bratbo

- 1991-1993 Consultant on evaluations and psychological in municipalities
- 1987-1991 Clinical psychologist in a public unit delivering psychological and special pedagogical services for children, families and staff in the municipality Vaerloese (capital region)
- 1987-1991 Psychologist at The Settlement Askovgaarden one day a week delivering open counselling and therapy for people with mental illness

Voluntary experience

- 1992-1996 & 2002-2010 Psychologist at an NGO offering open counselling services once a month
- 1985-1987 Psychology student at The Settlement Askovgaarden one day a week delivering open counselling and therapy for people with mental illness